

THE SHIP

Nestled in the heart of Exeter, with the grand soaring spires of the cathedral just a stone's throw away, The Ship stands as one of the city's oldest public houses. Dating back to the 16th century, this charming inn has a long tradition of heartfelt hospitality. In fact, in 1939, the landlord kept a black spaniel named Sam, a dutiful companion who not only greeted guests at the door but was also said to fetch glasses and even take payment.

Though Sam's paws no longer tread our floors, his spirit of hospitality certainly endures.
